

How Much is Too Much? John 12:1-8

Introduction

As we ponder this dinner party, our eyes rest on two people: Mary and Judas. Mary never says a word, and Judas says too much. One reveals her heart by what she does, the other by what he says

Question # 1: What Did Mary Do?

Question # 2: Why Was Judas So Upset?

Obvious implications of this story:

1. True love can't be _____; it can only be _____.
2. If we become _____ in our love for Jesus, our friends will likely not _____ us.
3. If my love for Jesus never leads me to _____, how much do I truly love him?
